Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever;
PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,
induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere. I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

The and Star Sentinel.

THE CARRIER'S ADDRESS
TO THE PATRONS OF
The Star and Sentinel.
JANUARY 1, 1869

Loud chimes the midnight hour of twelve—
The sad winds sigh across the moor,
Or slowly wander through the streets,
To tap for entrance at each door.

The naked trees sway to and fro,
And all about is chill and drear,
As slowly clang the requiem notes
For him who dies—the passing year.

Bent is his form and thin his locks,
Feeble his limbs, from ceaseless toil;
Thus, garnered in a ripe old age,
He shuffles of this mortal coil.

How rang the shouts and songs of mirth
But twelve months since, when he was born;
The shouts and songs are still the same,
But not, alas, for him forlorn—

Who, trembling at the tomb of time.
Waits but a moment here on earth,
To see his shadow fade in light,
That heralds forth the New Year's birth.

See! sinks the darkness in the West,
The morning rises through light's gate;
We read thy name, oh Sixty-nine,
The epitaph of Sixty-eight.

He could not bear thy driving wind,
He sank beneath the piercing blast,
Then shipped from Northern winter's lap,
And life for him fore'er was past.

Well, be it so; we chant no dirge,
Nor cyprus garlands sadly twine—
Dead Sixty-Eight has only filled
An epoch in the course of time.

And filled it well; the march of Right
Fell on the ear with steady beat,
The brave array of Freedom's hosts
Pressed forward with unfaltering feet.

Henceforth, beneath our Nation's flag,
As wave its folds from sea to sea,
There's not a trace of slavery left,
And not a soul that is not free.

Oh, fair Columbia, long we bore
The sight of thy upbraiding tears,
And long we suffered thee to groan
At our unhallowed, coward fears.

But, as we slunk behind the plea
"Expedient," Treason's loathsome form,
With Stars and Bars, and dagger drawn,
Came driving rampant on War's storm!

We bravely met the horrid foe,
We fought the battle long and well,
We conquered; though, on many a field,
Our martyred kinsmen thickly fell.

We conquered—and we then forgave;
Yet, o'er the holocaust of slain,
Uundmindful of the solemn past,
They raised their Rebel flag again.

In vain their charge, the Right stands firm,
We Freedom's banner higher plant—
The hostile cohorts broke away
Before our gallant leader GRANT.

There's laughter on the mountain top,
There's joy o'er every vale and plain,
Our music swells, till Freedom's tune
Has even reached the land of Spain;
For wrong has made its last attack,
And Treason made its last campaign.

Onward the march of mighty truth—
Swells grand the music of the spheres—
When king-bound Spain herself awakes,
Shakes off the shackles of her fears,
And seeks to blot from memory out
The darkness of her former years.

Alaska's snows are purer now,
Her sun gleams brighter through morn's bars,
Henceforth her snows shall lie beneath,
Her morn salute the stripes and stars,
And proudest boast in future times,—
A State obtained, unstained by wars.

Once in the past most prosperous year
Each eye was dimmed, and bowed each head,
As sadly, through the land, we paid
The nation's tribute to the nation's dead,
With scattered flowers, with low breathed prayer,
With music soft and muffled tread.

Oh, ye who prize the freedom won
With blood and death, by hero hand,
As yearly comes again the May,
So, yearly through the loyal land,
I pray you meet, to scatter flowers
And utter blessings on that band.

For not alone in ancient times
Have brave, true patriots grandly bled—
We hold our freedom by as grand
A sacrifice as e'er was paid,
And truth will flourish, honor live
In lands that love, revere their dead.

And now, my friends, I turn my song
To treat of other things—
The added wealth, the bounding health,
That healing Vichy brings.

Upon the field where blood was shed
To heal our nation's wrong,
A stream of healing water flows
To make the dying strong;

And we who saw the tide of war
Flow backward from our soil,
Can see the grip of death relax,
Disease release its spoil.

The pen outweighs the sabre's blade,
By ink the world is moved;
To do its share with best effect
The "STAR" has been improved.

Within its columns long and wide
Its matter is the best,
Whilst circulation far and near
Its influence does attest.

Of "Building Shares" a word's in place,
Likewise of Stevens Hall;
Yet time and space alike forbid
That we should mention all

The themes well worthy of our muse;
We needs must make an end
To this by far too long address,
And so good bye, dear friend.

Farewell! farewell! throughout the year
I wish you health and every joy:
Be happy, good, be noble, true,
And don't forget the

NEWSPAPER PATRONAGE.

There appear to be many different ways of understanding the true meaning of newspaper patronage, as it is called, and as an interested party we give place to a disquisition on the subject by one who knows whereof he speaks. It will serve, perhaps, as a mirror in which certain parties may see themselves as others see them:

Many long and weary years of experience in the publishing business has forced the conviction upon us that newspaper patronage is a word of many difinitions, and that a great majority of mankind are either ignorant of the correct definition or are dishonest, in the strict biblical sense of the word. Newspaper patronage is composed of as many colors as the rainbow and is as changeable as a chameleon.

One man comes in and subscribes for a paper and pays for it in advance, and goes home and reads it with the proud satisfaction that it is his. He hands in his advertisement, asks the price, pays for it, goes to his place of business, and reaps the advantages thereof. This is patronage.

Another man has had your paper for a long time without payment, and becomes tired of you and wants a change. Thinks he will have a city paper. He tells the Postmaster he don't want that paper any more, and a copy comes back marked "refused." But he don't pay, oh no! he has to keep your money to buy a city paper.—Pay comes when you sue him. Such may be called patronage.

One man brings in a dollar advertisement and wants a two dollar puff thrown in, and when you decline he goes off mad. Even this can be called patronage.

Another man don't take your paper, it is too small or too high priced, but he borrows it regularly and reads it. And that could be called patronage.

One man likes the paper, he takes a copy and pays for it, and gets his friend to do the same: he is not always grumbling to you or others, but alway has a friendly word.—If any accident occurs in his section, he informs the editor at once. This is newspaper patronage.

Another man has taken the paper several years, but has not paid for it, and in he comes with an advertisement which he wants inserted free because he is "an old patron." This is called patronage.

One hands you a marriage or other notice and asks for extra copies of the paper containing it; and when you ask him to pay for the papers, he looks surprised—"you surely don't take pay for such small matters." This is called patronage.

One man, and it is good to see such, comes in and says "the year for which I paid is about to expire, I want to pay for another." He does so and retires. This is newspaper patronage.

Now isn't newspaper patronage a curious thing? In that great day when the gentleman in black gets his dues—as he surely will, how many of the patrons enumerated above will fall to his share? It will be seen that while certain kinds of patronage are the very life and existence of a newspaper, there are other kinds of patron age that are more destructive than the "deadly night shade."

Reader! where do you stand?

The kind of business a man adopts usually settles the question of his success. If he has brains and pluck, is content to wait, does well whatever he does, is not afraid of earning his money, makes himself useful, so that he cannot be dispensed with, he will succeed. He may black boots, pick rags, shovel coal, be a low porter in a store; if he has integrity and talent, he will make his fortune. One of the richest men in New York began as a porter, and his former master is now a book-keeper in his establishment. One of the most eminent bank presidents in New York to-day, came to that city a penniless boy. "Do you want a boy, sir?" he said to a gentleman who stood in his store door. "What can you do?" "Anything, sir, to get an honest living." "Take those boots down stairs where you'll find some blacking and black them." The lad soon returned with the boots in a high state of polish. "You've done these well, said the merchant." "My mother told me to do everthing well, sir, that I undertook to do," was the reply. The answer touched the merchant's heart. He has done eveything else as he blacked the boots.

MISSPENT EVENINGS.—The boy who spends an hour of each evening lounging idle on a street corner, wastes in the course of a single year three hundred and sixty-five precious hours, which, if applied to study, would familiarize him with the rudiments, at least, of almost any of the familiar sciences. If in addition to the wasting of an hour each evening he spends five cents for a cigar, which is usually the case, the amount thus worse than wasted, would pay for four of the leading magazines of the country. Think how much precious time and good money you are wasting, and for what? The gratification afforded by the lounge on the corner or by the cigar is not only temporary, but positively hurtful. You acquire idle and wasteful habits, which will cling to you with each succeeding year.—You may in after life shake them off; but the probabilities are that habits thus formed in early life will remain with you till your dying day. Be cautioned then in time, and resolve that as the hour spent in idleness is gone forever, you will improve each passing one, and thereby fit yourselves for usefulness and happiness.

TAKING IT COOLLY; Old Squire Hopkins was a perfect picture of meekness and simplicity, and his stuttering seemed the effect of bashfulness rather than an inherent physical defect. One day a neghbor came to buy a yoke of oxen of him. The price was named, and the animals made a satisfactory appearance.

"Are they breachy?" asked the buyer.

"N-n-never t-t-troubled me," was the reply.

The other paid the price and took the yoke. In a day or two he came back in a towering passion.

"Confound these critters. 'Squire—there ain't no fence that will keep 'em. They will break through a stone wall, or jump over the moon. What the dickens made you tell me they wasn't breachy?"

"I-I didn't say n-n-no s-such-thing."

"Yes you did; you said they never troubled you."

"Oh, well, neighbor," said the Squire, "I d-don't let such a th-thing as that e'er t-t-trouble me."

The buyer sloped.

NOT a little of the healthy let-up which made the strain of army campaigning endurable was furnished by the odd, rollicking negro servants. One, fresh to army life, at the first engagement he had witnessed, was safely stowed away out of danger, well to the rear; but a vagrant shell came swooping over him with that peculiar screech which has often shaken stouter nerves than those of this poor African.—Him it frightened immeasurably, and after the battle he described it, with awe and trembling, as a great black thing which flew over him, screaming to him: "Where dat nigger? Where dat nigger? WHERE dat nigger?"

THE [illegible] ARTIST.

A Paris paper has the following [illegible] pretty story:

M. Robert, an [illegible] wealthy and highly accomplished gentleman, well known not only for his valuable collections of paintings and mediæval relics, but for his rare skill as a designer and painter, hearing that one of his tenants, M. Villars, whom he had never seen, kept one of the most extensive establishments of fancy boxes and ornamental objects in France, called on him with a view to make his acquaintance.

Entering the counting-house, he found a good-natured, eccentric gentleman of middle age, who greeted him, and exclaimed:—"I suppose that you also have seen my advertisement, and have come to apply for that situation as designer?"

For a joke, M. Robert replied that he had M. Villars supplied him with paints and brushes, and requested him to produce a design for a casket. M. Robert soon found that what Mr. Villars really wanted was an artist who would strictly carry out his own ideas, and that these were pure, and formed on an extensive knowledge of art. In a short time, he produced a sketch which suited the employer to a nicety.

M. Robert very gravely engaged himself, exacted good wages, and insisted on having several new articles of furniture placed in the room which was assigned to him. But when he was introduced to the work-rooms, and found one hundred and fifty girls, many of them young and beautiful, busily employed, and was informed that he would be required to supply them with designs, and show the young women how they were to be carried out, the young artist began to feel as if he should have to be carried out himself—being very susceptible.

"Working for a living," said he to himself, "is not entirely devoid of attractions. Let us work."

M. Robert being an accomplished artist, delighted his employer, and he soon found a remarkable fascination in seeing his designs realized in steel, silver, enamel, or wood. He took a pleasure, hitherto unknown, in seeing his works in shop-windows, and finding them in the abodes of his friends. The work-shop life was, of course, carefully concealed from "society;" nor did his employer suspect that his artist was actually his landlord. But M. Robert soon found a more intense object of fascination in the daughter of M. Villars, a young lady who also took part in the duties of the factory. The damsel was as remarkable for her accomplishments as for her extraordinary beauty; and M. Robert soon found that as regarded taste and culture in all matters which specially interested him, he had never met with any one like her. Step by step, the pair fell in love; and little by little the artist so ingratiated himself with the father, that the latter, after due deliberation, consented to their unoin.

Previous to the marriage, the old gentleman one day spoke of a dowry.

"I shall give Marie fifty thousands francs," he said, with a little of boasting, the sum named being two thousand pounds.

"And I suppose," added M. Robert, gravely, "that I, too, must settle something on my wife. Well, I will."

This caused a peal of laughter, which redoubled when the artist added, "And I will settle this piece of property, house and all, with the buildings adjoining, on her.

But what was their amazement, when M. Robert drew forth the title deeds, and said, "You seem to forget that I am your landlord? Isn't my name Robert?"

The young lady did not faint, but papa nearly died of astonishment and joy. This was a magnificent wedding, but the bridegroom has not given up business. He declares that there is as much amusement in being useful as in amusing one's self.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.

A noted sportsman, taking dinner at one of our N. Y. Clubs, exhibited a diamond ring of great beauty and apparent value on his finger. A gentleman present had a great passion for diamonds. After dinner the parties met in the office. After much bantering, the owner of the ring consented to barter the ring for six hundred dollars. As the buyer left the room, a suppressed tittering struck his ear. He concluded that the former owner had sold both the ring and the purchaser. He said nothing, but called the next day upon a jeweller, where he learned that the diamond was paste, and the ring worth twenty-five dollars. He examined some real diamonds, and found one closely resembling the paste in his own ring. He hired the diamond for a few days, pledged twelve hundred dollars, the price of it, and gave a hundred dollars for its use. He went to another jeweller, had the paste removed, and the real diamond set. His chums, knowing how he had been imposed upon, impatiently awaited his appearance next night. To their surprise they found him in a rare glee. He flourished his ring, boasted of his bargain and said if any gentleman present had a twelve hundred dollar ring to sell for six hundred dollars, he knew of a purchaser. When he was told that the ring was paste, and that he had been cheated, he laughed at their folly. Bets were freely offered that the ring did not contain a real diamond. Two bet a thousand dollars each. Two bet five hundred dollars. All were taken; umpires were chosen. The money and the ring were put into their hands.

They went to a first class jeweller, who applied all the tests, and who said the diamond was a stone of the first water, and worth, without the setting, twelve hundred dollars. The buyer put the three thousand dollars which he had won quietly in his pocket. He carried the diamond back and recalled his twelve hundred dollars, and with the paste ring on his finger went to the club. The man who sold the ring was waiting for him. He wanted to get the ring back; he attempted to turn the whole thing into a joke. He sold the ring for fun; he knew it was real diamond all the time. He never wore false jewelry. He could tell a rare diamond anywhere, by its light. He would not be so mean as to cheat an old friend. He knew his friend would let him have his ring again. But his friend was stubborn—said that the seller thought it was paste and intended to defraud him. At length on the payment of eight hundred dollars, the ring was returned. All parties came to the conclusion, when the whole affair came out, that when diamond cuts diamond again, some one less sharp will be selected.—Sunshine and Shadow in New York.

FATHER Moody was an eccentric man.—He had in his congregation a Col. Ingraham, a wealthy farmer, who kept back his large stock of corn from the market, in the hope of raising the price. The pastor heard of it, and resolved to make a public attack upon the transgressor. One Sabbath he read for his text, "He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it." Col. Ingraham could not but know to whom the reference was made; but he held up his head, and faced his pastor with a a look of stolid unconsciousness. Father Moody went on with very strong remarks, became still warmer and touched the colonel still more closely, who, however, still held up his head, apparently determined not to feel. At last the preacher lost all patience, and cried out, "Col. Ingraham, you know that I mean you. Why don't you hang down your head?"

A SCHOOL teacher near Chattanooga, Tennessee, was [illegible] some days ago for having whipped one of his pupils, and in the affray that ensued [illegible], including the school teacher, were [illegible], the only person in the party who escaped unhurt being the schoolboy who originated the trouble.

The Star & Sentinel.

Friday, Jan. 8, 1869.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

A NUMBER of articles in type have been crowded out to make room for the Governor's message.

WE surrender the larger portion of to-day's paper to the Governor's Message, which we publish in full. It is a model State paper, taken up almost exclusively with a consideration of practical questions connected with State Legislation. Governor GEARY gives a plain, terse resume of the various matters of general interest demanding the attention of the Legislature and the people, and the reader will find in the message a most satisfactory exhibit of the finances of the State, and other matters. The State Debt has been largely reduced under the operation of the Sinking Fund, but the Governor insists upon the most rigid economy in legislation, with a view to lessen the drafts on the Treasury. He advises a sale of the Bonds held by the State, growing out of the sale of the public works, and the application of the proceeds to the payment of the principal of the State Debt. The message is brief—the views judicious—and we bespeak for it the careful perusal of our readers, as in striking contrast to the wordy, arrogant, dictatorial style of President JOHNSON'S Messages. Gov. GEARY has a just conception of the relative duties and perogatives of the Executive and Legislative branches of the Government, and while modestly and frankly stating his own views when necessary, he is evidently disposed to defer largely to the judgment of the Legislature as the law-making power. The message closes with a pertinent reference to national affairs and the great popular triumph of November.

THE contest for U. States Senator, to succeed Mr. BUCKALEW, was virtually settled by the caucus of Republican Senators and Members, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday last, Hon. JOHN SCOTT, of Huntingdon county, receiving the nomination. He will of course be elected. In his nomination the intellect and virtue of the State nobly asserted themselves. He is one of the most eminent lawyers and purest citizens of the Commonwealth, of whose interests we doubt not he will prove a faithful guardian and manly representative. Other excellent names were suggested—honored names in the Republican party, and accepted as such throughout the nation. But it is no reflection upon them to say that the selection finally made is one of which all may justly be proud.

Mr. SCOTT is about 48 years of age, a native of Huntingdon county. He studied law in Chambersburg, and was in the legislature one or two years during the war, but has made his reputation chiefly at the Bar. In politics, he was a Douglas Democrat, but earnestly and unfalteringly espoused the cause of the country when assailed by the Southern Democracy. He is an advanced Republican. He has been active, on the stump for many years, and was President of the Republican Judicial Convention which met at Williamsport in 1867. Our State contains no abler or purer man; and we congratulate all the citizens thereof upon his election.

THE Legislature met on Tuesday last, and both Houses were promptly organized by electing the nominees of the Republican caucus. WILLIAM WORTHINGTON, of Chester, was elected Speaker of the Senate, by a vote of 18 to 15, CHARLETON BURNETT, of Monroe, being voted for by the Democrats. The officers of the Senate are:

Chief Clerks—George W. Hamersley, of Germantown.

Assistant Clerk—Lucius Rogers of McKean, and F. H. Braggins, of Mercer.

Transcribing Clerks—Ebenezer Williams, of Pittsburg; H. C. Bosler, of Montgomery; Charles Williams, of Philadelphia, and John Anderson, of Beaver.

Sergeant-at-arms—William A. Rupert, of Crawford.

Mr. WHITE, of Indiana, introduced the following resolution, which led to a protracted discussion, Mr. WALLACE and other Democratic Senators opposing it, and it was withdrawn:

Resolved, That, if the House concur, John Burns, of Gettysburg, whose patriotic courage at the battle of Gettysburg is familiar to the people of Pennsylvania, be and he is hereby continued as Assistant Doorkeeper of the Senate for the session of 1869.

JOHN CLARK, of Philadelphia, was elected Speaker of the House, receiving 60, and Mr. JOSEPHS, the Democratic nominee, 37 votes. The other officers elected are:

Chief Clerk—Gen. James L. Selfridge, of Northampton.

Resident Clerk—John A. Smull, of Harrisburg.

Assistant Clerk—E. G. Lee, of Philadelphia.

Transcribing Clerks—G. A. Magee, Philo Burritt, W. B. Irwin, J. D. Miller, R. Bernard, Charles Tubbs, George A. Bakoven.

Sergeant-at-arms—Joseph M. Cowell, of Philadelphia.

Postmaster—A. G. Henry, of Armstrong.

Assistant Postmaster—A. W. Kimmell, of Indiana.

Messenger—James M'Calley, of Philadelphia.

CONGRESS re-assembled on Tuesday with a quorum in both Houses. In the Senate a debate was caused by the introduction by Mr. FERRY of a resolution of inquiry as to the authority of the President to issue his recent Amnesty Proclamation. Mr. FERRY said that, whilst he was in favor of amnesty, he doubted the authority of the President to confer it in this sweeping way. Messrs. Howard, Frelinghuysen and Conkling concurred in doubting the power of the President to pardon by general proclamation. Messrs. DOOLITTLE and DAVIS defended the President's action. At the close of the debate the resolution was adopted.

THE Philadelphia Morning Post, started as a penny paper a year or so ago, has been very successful, and now makes its appearance greatly enlarged and will hereafter be issued as a two cent paper. The Post is a bold, outspoken advocate of the principles of the Republican party, an enemy of political rings and corruption, and is conducted with an editorial tact and ability that is always sure to command success.

THE general impression is that there will be a March session of the 41st Congress, and the question of organization is being agitated by the Republican members. Messrs. BLAINE, of Maine, and DAWES, of Massachusetts, are the most prominent candidates for Speakers. Despatches from Washington say that Mr. MCPHERSON will have no opponent for the Clerkship among his party, and it is probable the Democrats will vote for him also.

ROBERT W. MACKEY, cashier of the Allegheny National Bank of Pittsburg, was nominated for State Treasurer—Gen. IRWIN, the present incumbent, declining.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

GENTLEMEN:—For the harmony and general relations of comity and friendship existing between Pennsylvania and all the other States and Territories of the National Union; for the present prosperous condition of the Commonwealth; for the glad signs of coming political tranquility; and for the success which attends the progress of our free institutions, we owe a heavy debt of gratitude to Divine Providence. In view of the favorable circumstances under which you are now assembled, it becomes my province and duty, as it is my pleasure, to offer you my hearty congratulations, and to tender you a cordial welcome to the Legislative Halls of the State. This, indeed, affords me a higher gratification because, I participate with your constituents in the confidence manifested by them in selecting you to represent their individual interests as well as those of the Commonwealth. On your wisdom, integrity, judgment and discretion, all will undoubtedly rely for the correct determination of every question affecting the largest interests and gravest responsibilities, and for a continuance, and even an increase, of that prosperity which has hitherto been so signally enjoyed.

It is not without a consciousness of the great responsibility resting upon me that I undertake the performance of a constitutional duty, requiring that the Governor "shall from time to time give to the General Assembly information of the state of the Commonwealth, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge expedient." In conformity with this requirement your attention will be called only to such matters of public interest as in my judgment deserve careful consideration and action on your part during the present session.

FINANCES.

The following is a carefully prepared statement of the financial condition of the State for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1867:

The reports of the Auditor General and State Treasurer shows that the balance in the Treasury, November 30, 1867, was		$4,661,836 46
Ordinary receipts during the fiscal year ending November 30, 1868		5,216,049 55
Depreciated funds in the Treasury, unavailable		41,032 00
Total in Treasury for fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1868		$9,918,918 01
Payments, viz:
Ordinary expenses during the fiscal year ending November 30, 1868	$2,454,506 09
Loans, &c., redeemed	4,417,463 64
Other payments	12,800 00
Interest on loans	1,979,690 91
Depreciated funds, unavailable	41,032 00
		9,905,492 64
Balance in Treasury, Nov. 30, 1868		$1,013,415 37

SINKING FUND.

By an act approved April 10, 1868, the transactions of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were ordered to be thereafter reported annually to the 30th day of November. Their last report, therefore, includes a period of one year and three months.

The following is the "recapitulation" of the operations of the sinking fund, from September 3, 1867, to November 30, 1868:

Balance in fund September 3, 1867		$1,737,912 41
Receipts in fund from September 3, 1867, to November 30, 1868		3,418,992 31
		5,156,904 72
Paid interest	$1,808,005 84
Premiums paid as equivalent for coin	49 98
Loans redeemed	2,414,816 64
		4,222,871 96
Balance in fund November 30, 1868		$934,032 76

By the sixth section of the act of May 16, 1861, a special tax of one half mill on the dollar was specially set apart for the payment of the interest and redemption of the loan created by an act of May 18, 1861, entitled "An Act to create a loan and provide for arming the State."

Balance on hand September 3, 1867	$319,933 17
The receipts from said tax and tax on gross receipts from September 3, 1867, to November 30, 1868, amount to	423,979 20
Total	743,912 37
Interest paid in January and July, 1868	169,245 00
Balance in fund November 30, 1868	$574,667 37

CONDITION OF BALANCES.

Balance in sinking fund November 30, 1868	$934,032 76
Balance in sinking fund November 30, 1868	574,667 37
		$1,508,700 13
Deduct balance in Treasury, November 30, 1868		1,013,415 37
Balance in favor of sinking fund		$495,284 76

REDUCTION OF THE STATE DEBT.

By the report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the year ending September 3, 1867, the "loans redeemed" amounted to $1,794,569 50, and by their report from September 3, 1867, to November 30, 1868, the "loans redeemed" amounted to $2,414,816 64, making a total reduction of the State debt, in two years and three months, of $4,209,386 14.

The assets remaining in the Sinking Fund are as follow, viz:—Bonds of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, $6,400,000, and bonds of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company, $3,500,000. These are non-interest bearing bonds and will not mature for many years. I, therefore, recommend to the consideration of the Legislature the propriety of the passage of a law, authorizing the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to sell these bonds at public sale to the highest bidder, and direct the proceeds to be applied to the liquidation of the State debt.

PUBLIC DEBT.

Public debt outstanding December 1, 1867		$37,704,409 77
Deduct the amount redeemed at State Treasury during the fiscal year ending November 30, 1868, viz:
5 per cent. loans	$4,354,253 64
4½ per cent. loans	63,000 00
Relief notes cancelled	210 00
		4,417,463 64
Public debt December 1, 1868		$33,286,946 13

Statement showing the condition of the indebtedness of the Commonwealth on the first day of December, 1868.

Funded debt, viz:
6 per cent. loans	$25,311,180 00
5 per cent. loans	7,749,771 56
4½ per cent. loans	112,000 00
Total funded		$33,172,951 56
Unfunded debt, viz:
Relief notes in circulation	$96,415 00
Interest certificates outstanding	13,086 52
Interest certificates unclaimed	4,448 38
Domestic creditors' certificates	44 67
Total unfunded		113,994 57
Total funded and unfunded		$33,286,946 13

Which is the amount of the State debt as before stated.

During the last eighteen years there has been carried upon the accounts of the Auditor General and State Treasurer, and in their several public statements, "depreciated funds unavailable" to the amount of $41,032. I recommend the appointment of a joint committee, by the Legislature, whose duty it shall be to examine the said depreciated and unavailable funds and dispose of them to the best advantage of the Treasury; or, if found to be worthless, to cancel and destroy them, so that the accounting officers may be relieved from the necessity and responsibility of annually accounting for them.

The large cash balance remaining in the Treasury on the 30th of November, 1867, has been used for the payment of the twenty-three million loan and for the liquidation of outstanding claims against the State.—The investment of the funds, in one of the modes recommended in my last annual message, has, therefore, in a great measure been rendered unnecessary for the present. But in the event of large accumulations of money hereafter, the recommendations therein given are respectfully referred to, and renewed. Whenever there may be surplus funds in the Treasury, they can, with safety and benefit to the State, be employed in the purchase of its outstanding bonds, and in saving the interest on them which would accumulate prior to their maturity.

I regret to state that the last Legislature, although fully forewarned in regard to the security and want of proper and sufficient guards for the safe keeping of the money of the Commonwealth, failed to determine upon any mode by which the Treasury may be effectually guarded against the possibility of loss. The present Legislature has it in its power to secure for itself no ordinary honor, by the enactment of such a law, strong and efficient for the purpose indicated, and the enjoyment not only of the approbation, but the permanent gratitude of every citizen.

Notwithstanding the satisfactory reduction of the public indebtedness, as shown in the foregoing statements, an immense State debt is still upon us, requiring nearly $2,000,000 of dollars to be collected to pay the interest accruing upon it annually. Its extinguishment at the earliest practical period, not inconsistent with other public interests, is of the highest importance to every tax-payer. I cannot, therefore, too strongly urge the strictest economy in respect to every expenditure and the utmost retrenchment in every department.

Retrenchment is emphatically demanded by the people, in legislative expenditures, as well as in every other branch of the government. Their eyes are open to investigate every transaction, and by their ballots they are ready to strike down those who will not take effective action in favor of positive and radical reform. The money paid into the Treasury is "the property of the people, every one of whom has a just right to hold his representatives to a strict accountability for every dollar that may be appropriated or expended.

I here renew the remarks made last year on the subject of "annual appropriations," to which you are respectfully referred. For four successive years the general appropriation bills have been signed on the eleventh day of April, being about the the time of adjournment. The Governor has been forced either to sign the bills without proper investigation, notwithstanding any objections he may have; suspend the means to defray the operations of the government for the ensuing year; or call an extra session of the Legislature. I repeat that "it is earnestly desired that the appropriation bill be taken up, discussed and passed at a sufficiently early period during the session to enable it to receive that thorough examination which its importance demands."

EDUCATION.—COMMON SCHOOLS.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Common Schools exhibits the condition of that department in a highly satisfactory manner. Within the State there are 1,918 school districts; 13,766 schools; 2,382 graded schools; 11,698 school directors; 73 county city and borough superintendents; 16,771 teachers; and 800,515 pupils. The cost of tuition for the year was $3,273,269 43; of building, purchasing and renting school houses, $1,991,152 55; of contingences, $854,253 21. These three items, with expenditures for all other purposes connected therewith, amount to the aggregate sum of $6,200,537 96.

These facts are exhibited with great satisfaction, as they show the average annual cost for the tuition of each pupil to be about seven dollars and seventy-four and a half cents. The average amount paid to each teacher is about $195 17½ per annum.—This, in my opinion, is too small a salary to secure the services of competent teachers; and I am fully justified in urging the necessity of increased compensation. It is but just, and it will have an elevating tendency not only upon the teachers but the manner in which their duties are performed.

Your attention is called to the fact that, notwithstanding the ample provision now made by law for the education of all persons between the ages of six and twenty-one years, large numbers of children, principally in our cities, do not attend any kind of school. Over twenty thousand of this class are found in Philadelphia, and the number in the State is estimated to be not less than 75,000. These children grow up in ignorance, frequently without employment, and many of them contract habits of vice, which eventually cause them to be committed to houses of refuge, county prisons or penitentiaries. Humanity and sound policy demand that something be done to remedy this growing evil, and also that of the neglected condition of considerable numbers of children in the alms and poor houses in many of the counties.

Four Normal Schools are now recognized as State institutions. The number of students attending them during the past year was 2,115, of whom eighty graduated. Two additional Normal Schools will probably go into operation during this year, one located at Bloomsburg, Columbia county, and the other at California, Washington county.—The value of these institutions to the common school system cannot be estimated.—Our schools are comparatively worthless without qualified teachers, and such teachers can most easily be obtained from the Normal institutes, where the art of teaching is made a specialty.

A meeting of the presidents and other authorities of a number of our principal colleges was held in Harrisburg last winter, the object of which was to bring about a closer union of all our educational institutions, and connect by a bond of sympathy, if not of organic structure, the common schools, high schools, academies and colleges. The establishment of such an educational department seems to be desirable.

There is no subject more worthy the deliberations of the Legislature than the promotion of the welfare of our common schools. They immediately underlie the characteristic features of our social system; they are fountains of that wide-spread intelligence, which, like a perennial vitality, pervades the nation, and are nurseries of that inquiring spirit to which we are indebted for the purity and preservation of our free institutions. In a republican government education is a sure basis of power and public prosperity. By it the people are taught to discern and estimate the value of their own rights; to distinguish between oppression and the exercise of lawful authority; to discriminate between liberty and licentiousness; to preserve an inviolable respect for the laws, and exercise "eternal vigilance" against any encroachments upon them. It is admitted that a thoroughly educated people alone can be permanently free. By educational culture patriotism is expanded, and the principles, manners and sentiments of the whole people are assimilated. Many of the sources of jealousy and prejudice are diminished, social harmony largely increased, and the structure of our free and happy system of government cemented, strengthened and adorned.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' SCHOOLS.

In his report the Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools exhibits the total expenditure for their support from December 1, 1867 to May 31, 1868, to be $286,970 26; total number of pupils in the schools 3,431; average cost per pupil $69 06½ for six months; and the average weekly expenses per pupil $2 65½. The fiscal year of these schools, like that of the common schools, terminates by law on the last day of May of each year. The present report of the Superintendent, therefore, embraces only six months, and reports will be made up to the 31st day of May, annually, hereafter. The special appropriation of February 25, 1868, made in accordance with an estimate of the Superintendent, presented in my last annual message, exceeded the actual expenses $6,004 74.

Notwithstanding every possible effort has been, and will continue to be made, to economize in the expenses of the present year, and to keep them as far as possible within the appropriation made by the last Legislature, it will readily be observed that there will be a deficit for the year ending May 31, 1869, the amount of which will be carefully ascertained and presented to the Legislature prior to the close of the present session.

The schools are all in good condition and improving, and their usefulness is daily becoming more manifest. They are among the most philanthropic institutions of the age, and reflect high honor on the patriotism of the Legislature by which they have been so liberally endowed and upon our people by whom they are sustained. The children who are the recipients of their benefits are the offspring of brave men who voluntarily endangered their lives in the cause of their country in the most trying hour of its existence, and as heroically as the noblest men in the word's history. Thousands of them who left their homes in the bloom of health and with the brightest hopes of manhood, now sleep in death, leaving their widows and little ones to the care of the country in whose service they fell, and which promised them its protection. Their children are the wards of this great Commonwealth; and too much praise cannot be awarded its people for the munificent and tender manner in which they have thus far, through their representatives, discharged the sacred and delicate trust.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Before the General Government appropriated public lands to the several States for the purpose of agricultural and military education and the mechanic arts, and prior to the time when Pennsylvania endowed the Agricultural College with her share of these lands, it was dependent wholly upon individual influence, without any other means for its support than its own earnings. History proves that seminaries of learning cannot be efficiently sustained by their own internal resources. The education of youth in the higher branches of knowledge seems to require the aid of philanthropic contributions. This institution had not these benefits to an adequate extent, and though the board of trustees bestowed upon it the most anxious care, their zeal and labor, combined with those of its friends, were not equal to a contest with the want of means. Hence the school did not command the confidence of farmers who were able to educate their sons, and who could not forget that the character of the college attached to the character of its graduates; and that its failure would enter into the estimate which the world would place upon the education it bestowed. This feature has now been removed. The people, through their Legislature, have endowed this institution with the interest upon a fund of $318,500 00, (invested in United States and Pennsylvania State six per cent. bonds,) payable to it semi-annually. Last year this interest amounted to $25,642 78. The residue of the fund, $43,886 50, has been appropriated, under the law, by the board of trustees, to the purchase of three model and experimental farms; one at the college, in Centre county, for $8,000 00, one in Chester county for $17,750 00, and one in Indiana county for $18,136 50. The board has also recently re-organized the faculty and remodeled the course of studies, so as to adapt them to the wants of the agricultural community. This new order of things goes into operation at the commencement of the next session, and it is earnestly hoped will be a success. There is no profession, trade or calling in life, where the value of knowledge and the lights of science, and the practical application of both, are so potent for profitable results as in their adaptation to agricultural pursuits. And in this truly practical age it is well worthy of the consideration of parents, whether they should not avail themselves of the benefits of this institution, now so generously endowed by the State.

MILITARY.

From the report of the Adjutant General you will learn the condition of the military Department. The inactivity in military affairs after the cessation of hostilities and upon the return of peace, has in a great measure been dispelled, and an active martial spirit now prevails throughout the State: more particularly in Philadelphia, where, by a special legislative enactment, the minimum number of men required to form a company has been reduced, and a brigade fund is raised by a tax upon those who are not members of a military organization, but liable to the performance of military duty. I recommend the passage of a similar law for the whole State. For the sake of preserving the great interests involved, which include the lives, property and happiness of our people, this is presented to you as an important subject for your deliberation.

Every possible encouragement of volunteers has been afforded, and notwithstanding the difficulties indicated it has resulted as follows: In 1866 there were eight volunteer companies in the State; in 1867, thirty-eight; and in 1868, seventy-seven, and a number of others in preparation for organization.

By a reduction of the number for a company from that now required to an aggregate of fifty officers and men, companies would soon be numbered by the hundred, any of which could easily be recruited to the maximum number if required for active service. The State that always maintains the highest degree of preparation, accomplishes most and suffers least in the conflict of arms; and by being in readiness it often prevents improper encroachments upon her rights.

The Adjutant General presents a full and detailed statement of the disbursements in his department during the year ending November 30, 1868, with an estimate for the necessary appropriations for the current year, and also for such amounts as have been discovered to be due from the Transportation Department, contracted during the war.

STATE AGENCY.

The existence of the Military State Agency at Washington terminated on the 31st day of July last, at which time the appropriation for the payment of its expenses was exhausted. Much benefit resulted to many of the soldiers of our State, and their representatives, from this office, in which their just dues from the United States Government were collected and transmitted to them free of charge. In August, after the agency ceased to exist, there still remained a considerable number of unsettled claims, and as no one knew more about their condition, or could possibly obtain an earlier settlement of them than the late agent, Col. Cook, I permitted him, upon his own offer, to close up the business of the office, and to transact any other business for the soldiers of Pennsylvania at one-half the fees that are charged by any other private agency in Washington City. This arrangement has thus far been carried out, and I am pleased to add, with very general satisfaction. All the books and papers of the agency will be transferred to the office of the Adjutant General.

REGISTRY LAW.

At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed known as the "Registry Law," the intention of which was to protect the ballot-box against corruption and fraudulent voting, to which it has for many years been disgracefully exposed. This law seems to have been so defective in some of its provisions as to have received the condemnation of a majority of the Supreme Court, by which it was pronounced "incongruous and unconstitutional." At the election immediately after this decision, it is alleged that frauds were perpetrated, surpassing in magnitude, perhaps, any that have been consummated heretofore in the history of the Commonwealth. These frauds have demonstrated the necessity of the passage of some law, or laws, that will accomplish the desired object, without being subject to the exceptionable features pointed out by the learned gentlemen who pronounced the opinion of the Supreme Bench.

There is no subject of such vital importance to the whole country as the sanctity of the ballot-box, and the protection of all citizens in their right to the elective franchise. This right is our proudest boast. It endows the American citizen with a freedom and a power not possessed by the subject of any other government. It makes him the peer of his fellow man, whatever may be his rank, station, or position in life. To be deprived of it by any means whatever, his boasted freedom becomes a sham—his especial and exalted prerogative a mockery and a farce. What avails it to the citizen that he is entitled to a vote, if that vote is to be nullified by fraud? Such guards, then, should be thrown around the polls as will effectually, if possible, preserve them from the taint of a single illegal vote. Not only should false voting be severely punished, but false swearing to obtain a vote, be visited with the pains and penalties of perjury and with perpetual disfranchisement.

The people must be perfectly free to regulate their public business in their own way, and when the voice of the majority is fairly and clearly expressed all should bow to it as the voice of God. They are the sovereign rulers, and their will must be the law of the land. Corruption of suffrage in a republican government is the deadliest crime that can be perpetrated; it is assassination of the sovereignty of the people, and will be followed by a despotism, the motive power of which will be money and perjury. And if this privilege be tampered with, sooner or later the sure and indignant popular condemnation will be rendered and condign punishment administered. All good citizens, of whatever political opinion, should lend their aid for the accomplishment of any and every measure that may tend to secure each voter, not only his right to the elective franchise, but the assurance that his vote will not be rendered valueless by illegality, corruption or fraud.

Every proper facility for the naturalization of citizens of foreign birth should be afforded; but the Legislature, in its combined wisdom, can surely enact some mode to prevent the possibility of a single vote being cast upon spurious naturalization papers, and thus fully secure the purity of the elective franchise.

REVISION OF THE CIVIL CODE.

The commissioners appointed to codify the statute laws of the State have diligently prosecuted the work assigned them and with every prospect that it will be fully completed within the time prescribed by the legislative resolutions of April 3, 1868; and in further compliance with them, they will cause to be laid before each branch of the General Assembly, at its present session, various titles of bills, with brief abstracts of the several sections of each, which have been matured.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

Among the subjects of importance to the citizens of Pennsylvanian is the establishment of an Insurance Department. Such departments are in successful operation in several neighboring States, by means of which the interests of insurers are guarded and promoted. So careful a supervision is had over the transactions of insurance companies that frauds are rendered almost impossible, and spurious companies can have no existence. The result of the protection thus afforded, is, that whilst foreign companies, thus protected, do immense business in this State, so little confidence is had in those of Pennsylvania that their business is almost entirely confined within the State limits; and lately some of them have withdrawn their agencies from other States, because no risk will be taken, in consequence of the inadequacy of the laws to afford protection to insurers. To this defect, moreover, may be attributed the operations of the number of worthless companies which have suddenly sprung up, without any solid basis, and as suddenly expired, to the injury of all whose confidence they obtained, and to the dishonor of the Commonwealth. Whilst Pennsylvania insurance companies transact little business outside of the State, it is alleged that foreign life insurance companies alone paid taxes last year on $3,600,000 of premiums received in Pennsylvania, a great proportion of which would be confined to this State if the same protection was given by law to its citizens as is afforded by other States. The report of the Insurance Department of New York, published in 1867, shows that the companies which were doing business in 1866, in Pennsylvania, and also in New York, had risks in force for more than five thousand million of dollars; and it is believed that the risks in Pennsylvania companies, which, for want of a proper Insurance Department, cannot be obtained, would swell the amount to over six thousand million.

In view of these facts, and of the costly experience of the people who have been imposed upon and defrauded by unsubstantial and ephemeral companies, I repeat the recommendation made to the Legislature at its last session, that an Insurance Department be established, and a superintendent appointed by law, who shall have supervision and control over all insurance companies allowed to transact business within the State, and annually publish, under oath, full reports of their transactions. The community is deeply interested in this matter, and demands the protection which can thus only be afforded.

NEW HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE.

The commissioners appointed by an act of the last session to "to establish an additional State Hospital for the Insane," have notified me that they will present a report of their proceedings sometime during the present month, which will be communicated when received.

DAMAGES BY RAIDS.

In accordance with an act of the last session, providing for an investigation and adjudication of the claims of citizens of several counties "whose property was destroyed, damaged or appropriated for public service, and in the common defence in the war to suppress the rebellion," a commission of three competent gentlemen was appointed, who have performed the allotted duties, and will soon make a full report of their transactions.

PARIS EXPOSITION.

I have received through the Secretary of State of the United States, a bronze medal and diploma from the Imperial Commissioners for the best specimens of Pennsylvania anthracite coal exhibited at the Paris Exposition in 1867. These tributes to an important branch of the internal resources of Pennsylvania have been assigned a place among other valuable relics in the Executive Chamber.

STATE COAT OF ARMS.

Dilligent but unsuccessful search has been repeatedly made for the coat of arms of the State, and for the authority under which the present design was established. It seems that for years past no trace of either the original authority or design could any where be found, and it is recommended that the Legislature take the necessary steps to supply the commission, by such means as they in their wisdom shall determine.

STATE BENEFICIARIES.

A number of benevolent, charitable and other institutions annually receive appropriations from the State for their support. These appropriations, in most, if not in all cases, appear to have been adequate for the purposes to which it was intended they should be applied, and are as liberal as can reasonably be expected in the present condition of the Treasury of the State.

THE SUSQUEHANNA FISHERIES.

A preliminary report on the Susquehanna fisheries has been submitted by Col. James Worrall, Civil Engineer, Commissioner under the act of the Legislature in reference thereto. There are some facts which should be embodied in the report, but which can not be ascertained until early in January. Permission, has therefore been granted to the Commissioner, at his request, to postpone the submission of his regular report until the earliest day practicable during the present month.

CATTLE DISEASE.

The prevalence of contagious or epidemic diseases among cattle and other animals has for some years past been a prolific scource of anxiety and alarm among the producers and consumers of meats in many of the States. It was therefore deemed important to call a convention of competent persons to take into consideration the means best calculated to remedy this great and growing evil. This convention, composed of three commissioners each from the fourteen States represented, appointed in accordance with an agreement by the several Governors, assembled at Springfield, Illinois, on the first of December last, and an account of their transactions is herewith presented.

Without legislature authority, but believing my action would be sanctioned by the people's representatives, I appointed Dr. Hirman Corson and Messrs. E. C. Humes and A. Boyd Hamilton, commissioners to represent Pennsylvania in that convention. These gentlemen freely gave their time and experience, and also incurred a pecuniary expense of about three hundred dollars, to defray which I recommend that an appropriation be made.

STATISTICS.

In view of the vast amount and great variety of the products of the State, a desk for the collection of statistics, relative to exports and imports, agriculture, manufactures, coal, iron, oil, lumber, &c., might, with propriety and profit, be established. This could be accomplished by the employment of a competent clerk, under the supervision of one of the present heads of department, whose duty should be to collect and publish such facts as might tend to stimulate and increase our productive energies, instill new life and vigor into our manufacturing interests, lead to more accurate knowledge of all our internal resources and the proper methods for their development. There is abundant space in the Capitol buildings to be appropriated as a receptacle for books, papers, mineralogical and geological specimens, and other articles that might be contributed appropriate to such a department and which in a few years would form an invaluable collection. Under legislature direction, the good results would be almost incalculable, and are required by the progressive spirit of the age in which we live.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE VERMONT LEGISLATURE.

Your attention is called to the accompanying joint resolutions, passed at the last session of the Vermont Legislature, bearing a just tribute to the late Hon. Thaddeus Stevens. Joint resolutions from the same body are also sent you, which I regard as worthy of your consideration, relative to the act of Congress "to establish and protect National Cemeteries," and recommending "to the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania the passage of an act empowering the board of commissioners having charge of the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg, to transfer all the right, title, interest and care of said Soldiers' National Cemetery to the General Government, upon the completion of the same."

IN MEMORIAM.

It has been the misfortune of the State during the past year to lose by death two of her representatives in the Congress of the nation, Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, of the Ninth, and Hon. Darwin A. Finney, of the Twentieth District. Both were natives of Vermont, but in early life selected Pennsylvania for their home, and identified themselves with her interests, which they were chosen to guard in the Legislature; and the people of the Commonwealth will long remember with gratitude their faithful and efficient services. The first went down to his grave after a long life of public usefulness and in well matured honors; the other in the prime of manhood, which gave promise of a scarcely less brilliant career.

PARDONS.

The list of pardons issued during the past year will be found among the papers to which your attention is called. The principal reasons upon which they were based, and the names of some of the prominent petitioners, are given in every case. That a few of these pardons may have been unworthily granted, through misrepresentations of relatives, friends, sympathizing neighbors and other interested parties, there is no doubt, but in the majority of instances it is certain that the facts not only justified but demanded Executive clemency.

The whole number of applications for pardons during the year has been 1623. The number of pardons granted in that time has been 106, which is a little over 6½ per cent. Of those pardoned about 5 per cent. have been again brought before the courts in consequence of their return to the commission of crime.

I am fully impressed with the weighty responsibility of the pardoning power, which ranks among the most difficult and embarrassing duties of the Executive office. Daily beset with powerful and pitiful importunities, as well as conflicting representations, from those in whom he should be enabled to place the fullest confidence, in order to avoid errors in the decision of any case, the Governor is compelled to take into consideration the action of the court before which the convict has been tried; the majesty of the law which may or may not have been violated; the condition of the prisioner; his temptation to err; the injury that may be inflicted upon his helpless and dependent relatives, and the arguments and appeals of citizens whose opinions and wishes he is bound to respect. And however just his decision and humane and generous his action, either in favor of or against the petitioner for clemency, he must expect to have his motives impugned, his name and character maligned, and to suffer virulent attacks for the exercise of this most important and merciful prerogative.

The pardon report will exhibit that many instances in which Executive clemency has been invoked, youthful prisoners, charged with their first offences, and those of a trivial character, have been the recipients. The object of punishment, in all cases, should not be so much to inflict pain as to reform the sufferer and prevent the repetition of evil deeds. This fact is frequently lost sight of in imposing punishment upon criminals, especially when inexperienced youths are shut up in close cells with men hardened in crime, where its arts are daily taught and a romance thrown around its commission. Instead of being improved, they come forth at the expiration of their terms of sentence with the loss of self-respect, their moral sentiments blunted, and prepared to practice upon society the infamous lessons they have learned. Such punishments tend to increase rather than lessen the quantity of crime. When houses of correction and reformatories are constructed, or a proper system of confinement and prison discipline is adopted, there will be a material decrease of crime, and comparatively few cases to demand the exercise of the pardoning power.

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCES.

There are confined in the Philadelphia county prison the following named convicts, under sentence of death, for whose execution warrants have not been issued: Edward Ford, sentenced May 12, 1851; Jerry Dixon, May 30, 1863; Patrick Finnegan, February 9, 1863; Newton Champion, December 1, 1866, and Alfred Alexander and Hester Vaughn, July 3, 1868. Successive Governors, for satisfactory reasons, have declined to order the execution of these persons. The law requires that they shall be executed in accordance with the sentence, unconditionally pardoned, or held in close confinement in the county jail during life. The latter punishment, with the additional embitterment constantly preying upon the mind that a death warrant may at any moment be issued, is, perhaps, the serverest that could be inflicted. It would be both just and merciful to give the Governor authority to commute the sentence of death in the above named cases to imprisonment, at labor, in the penitentiary, for such a term of years as the ameliorating circumstances may seem to justify and demand. One of the convicts named has been imprisoned about eighteen years, and although it might not be advisable to set him at liberty, humanity and the ends of justice require the commutation of his sentence in the manner suggested.

CONCLUSION.

The foregoing subjects have been deemed of sufficient importance to submit at the present time for your information and consideration. Others may occur before the close of the session which may be worthy of special communication. It will be my constant care and determination to co-operate with you in the prosecution of any measures that may tend to preserve and increase the prosperity of the State and the happiness of its people, with the firm belief that your united wisdom will aim constantly to promote these desirable results.

Many of the events that have transpired since my last annual communication to the Legislature have been unusually interesting and significant. They have been infinitely more than political, and bear directly upon the great interests and most sacred destinies of the nation. Apart from the vindication of the principles of the party which sustained the government and the army during the contest for the preservation of the Union, and the election to the Presidency of the first soldier of the age, is the fact that the people have by triumphant majorities forever settled our controversy upon certain fundamental principles. Parties may and undoubtedly will arise upon other issues, but there can be no future struggle about slavery. Involuntary servitude, as a monopoly of labor, is forever destroyed. The monster obstacle to the national progress has been removed, and henceforward all the faculties of our people can be developed "without let or hinderance." The fair and exuberantly fertile States of the South, heretofore comparatively retrogressive and unproductive, relieved from this terrible curse, with the influx of northern immigration and capital, will soon become the rivals of their northern sister States in all the arts of peace, and additional markets will be developed in which to exchange the varied products of the heretofore hostile sections.

Hardly less magical has been the effect upon other nations. General Grant's election has confirmed the hopes of our nation's friends, and the fears of its foes in the Old World. It supplements and seals the verdict of arms and the progress of republican principles. The downfall of the rebellion in the United States was quickly followed by the great civil revolution in England; the peaceful expulsion of the last of the Bourbons from Spain; the unrest of Cuba; the concession of more liberable principles in Germany; and the necessary acquiescence of the Emperor of the French in the republican sentiments he fears even as he has betrayed them. What are these but the echoes of the dire catastrophe that has overwhelmed aristocracy in the United States?

Notwithstanding the importance of the issues involved in the late canvass, and the bitterness of feeling as well as the earnestness with which it was conducted, its termination has happily met with the acquiescence of nearly the whole people; and at no time in the history of the nation has there been opened before us a brighter prospect of continued peace and increasing prosperity; and we have no greater cause for universal congratulation than that no differences of opinion now exist that can materially mar our national happiness, retard our onward progress, or threaten the peace or perpetuity of our government.

In conclusion, permit me to remark that the voice of Pennsylvania, as well as that of a majority of the States, has at the ballot-box proclaimed to the world that all our national indebtedness, no matter how heavy the burden, will be paid according to "the letter and spirit" of the agreements made and entered into at the time the debt was contracted; and that in this as in all other respects our individual and national honor "must and shall be preserved;" that we are determined by all honorable means in our power to secure ample encouragement and protection to each and every branch of Home Industry, and every manly enterprise that contributes capital, labor, skill and industry to our material wealth, social advancement and political tranquillity; that for all our citizens, the children of the Commonwealth, being also citizens of the United States, we demand the fullest protection, in their persons, their property, and in all their rights and privileges, wherever they may go within the national jurisdiction or in foreign lands; and that whilst our financial policy shall be such as to maintain untrammelled our national credit, it is to be hoped that it may at the same time be such as will permit and sanction the construction of the great railways now in progress and stretching out their giant arms to grasp the mighty commerce of the Pacific, to develop the untold resources of wealth in the intervening territories, and to connect the most distant portions of our country in a common union, not only with iron bands, but by the still stronger and more indissoluble ties of a common interest and a common brotherhood.

To lessen the burdens of the people, and to keep the expenses of the State as nearly as possible within the limits of its absolute necessities, will always be among the chief objects of wise and just legislation. Let us, then, with a due sense of our obligations and high responsibilities, endeavor so to discharge our duties as to as to secure the greatest good of the community and merit the approbation of Him by whom our Commonwealth has been so abundantly blessed.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Harrisburg, January 6, 1869.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—A brutal murder was committed near Shippensburg, on Wednesday of last week. Adam Titus killed Henry Stem, in order to obtain some forty dollars in money in the possession of the latter. Titus buried the body of Stem, which led to the discovery of the murder, and was arrested and committed to prison at Carlisle. Both men were Germans.

FRANKLIN.—Efforts are being made to organize a Second Building Association in Waynesboro.—On the 23d ult., an interesting little son of Daniel Hoover, of Waynesboro, was fatally scalded; Mr. Hoover was in the act of removing a crock from the stove containing boiling water when the bottom fell out, a part of the water falling upon the child and scalding it, from the effects of which it died on Thursday.—Nancy Tomas, an aged lady, residing near Mercersburg, recently died under circumstances which have given rise to the suspicion that she was poisoned. The body was disinterred last week, and the contents of the stomach removed for chemical analysis. Suspicion attaches to a man named Jones, now in Chambersburg jail on a charge of robbery.—Morrow R. Skinner's Grist Mill, in Roxbury, was destroyed by fire on the 30th ult.; there was an insurance of $2,600 on the property.

FREDERICK.—Henry Routzahn has sold his Farm near Myersville, 210 acres, to Josiah Harp, at $85 per acre. Maurice Jones has sold his farm of 22 acres, well improved, near Walkersville, to Geo. Cronise, for $6,000.—The Frederick Town Savings' Institution has declared a semi-annual dividend of six per cent.—A daughter of F. Edmonds, near Middletown, aged 6 years, had her leg broken while sliding on the ice, last week.—Mrs. Mary Lincum, of Middletown, last Tuesday fell on the ice in her yard and broke an arm.

WASHINGTON.—A red Durham cow, belonging to Lewis Snively, of Fairview, gave birth last week to a calf by his Durham Bull, which weighed when dropped 120 pounds.

YORK.—Last Saturday, George Barshinger, of Windsor township, aged 27 years, while driving his wagon met with his death. One of the traces got loose while going down hill; Mr. B. replaced the trace, and while in the act of re-mounting the saddle horse the team started running; the unfortunate man slipped and fell, the wagon passing over his head, causing his death.—A son of Israel Rieber, Conwago township, aged 12 years, while skating with a number of other boys, fell on the ice and broke a leg.—On Christmas morning Hanover Lodge, No. 327 I. O. O. F., presented a barrel of flour to the widow of each deceased member of the Order in Hanover.—John Zinn, of Heidelburg township, had his leg fractured on the 4th inst., by the caving in of an ore bank.—The Columbia Bridge has been thrown open for foot travel; the bridge will be completed and thrown open for general travel by the 1st of February.

INDIAN WAR.—General Sheridan has arrived at Fort Cobb with Custer's command, and in a letter to General Sherman says that he came upon a camp of Kiowas who were friendly; but, discovering evidence of treachery among them, he seized Santanta and Lone Wolf, and threatened to hang them it all the Kiowas did not repair to Fort Cobb. The Kiowas were already coming into Fort Cobb, and he proposed to punish all of them who have been concerned in murders. The Cheyennes are very humble, and General Sheridan thinks that the novel idea of carrying on the war in winter time will bring the hostile tribes to terms.

THE Government of Chili has declared its adhesion to the Peace Conference which our Government had proposed for terminating the war between Spain and the allied South American Republics. As Spain, Peru and Bolivia had adhered to the proposition before, the Peace Conference will meet in Washington in the course of the present winter.

A SURPRISE.—We were astonished the other day at the number of persons we met on the streets, carrying packages of Dry Goods, Queensware, &c., and upon inquiring, found they had all come from DUPHORN'S, corner of the Square and Carlisle street. He seems to have created quite an excitement with the low prices at which he is now selling goods. Give him a call before you make your purchases. tf

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1867.

Allow me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its action principle) leaving a dark and glutinous decoctive. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,
With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist of 16 Years' Experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.
WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of Nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, in affections peculiar to Females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists every where. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, Jan. 8, 1869.

FAT HOGS.—HENRY B. WEANER, of Straban township, last week slaughtered two Hogs—one weighing 313 pounds, and the other 454.

We are requested to state that D. D. G. M. THOMAS will instal the officers elect of "Good Samaritan Lodge No. 336, A. Y. M." on Thursday evening next, Jan. 14.

Our Carrier desires us to tender his thanks to the patrons of the "STAR AND SENTINEL," for the generous reception given to him on New year's day.

Rev. WM. EARNSHAW, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church in Gettysburg, is at present Chaplain of the National Asylum for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, located at Dayton, Ohio.

SERVICES.—The Church at Marsh Creek will be open for public worship on Sabbath morning Jan. 10, and the Church at Hunterstown on Sabbath morning Jan. 17.

Rev. Mr. GEDDES will preach in the Presbyterian Church in this place on Sabbath morning next.

WITHDRAWN.—We observe that John M. Stevenson, sen., withdrew on the 1st inst., from active business as a partner in the firm of Stevenson & Sons, North Howard St., Baltimore. His place has been taken by Espy Stevenson, his grandson, and son of the late A. R. Stevenson, Esq.

On Sunday evening a week, while the sexton of the new Lutheran Church, at Littlestown, was engaged lighting the Lamps preparatory to the evening services, one of the lighted lamps fell to the floor and exploded, setting fire to the carpet. The fire was promptly extinguished, the damage being confined to the carpeting and one or two pews.

SALES.—George A. Bushman has sold his property in Straban township, on York pike, frame dwelling and 1½ acres, to Wm. Spangler, for $1000.

James Linn, Administrator of Jacob Mickley, dec'd, has sold the property of said dec'd, in Franklin township, 4 acres and improvements, to James Mickley, for $670.

OXFORD TOWNSHIP.—Messrs. Daniel Geiselman, Lewis Will and John Ruff, have been appointed by the Court of Quarter Sessions Commissioners to re-examine and report upon the expediency of establishing an Independent School District in Oxford township. The Commissioners will meet on the 23d inst., at 9 A. M., at Isaac Hershey's Mill, and hear parties in interest—the report to be presented to Court on the fourth Monday of January for approval.

ELECTION.—The annual election for officers of the "Gettysburg Beneficial Association," was held on the 2nd inst., resulting in the choice of the following gentlemen:

President—H. J. Stahle.
Vice-President—Henry Rupp.
Treasurer—Joel B. Danner.
Secretary—Jacob Aughinbaugh.

Mr. AUGHINBAUGH succeeds R. G. HARPER, Esq. as Secretary. Mr. H. has been Secretary of the Association since 1830, being annually re-elected. This year he declined a re-election.

The Winter Session of Pennsylvania College opened yesterday, the students generally being on the ground. Rev. H. LOUIS BAUGHER, of Indianapolis, Ind. who was elected "Pearson Professor of Greek Language and Literature," has accepted and enters upon his duties at once. Dr. VALENTINE having been formally inaugurated as President, the Institution is now thoroughly manned with a corps of Professors and Teachers second to none in the land—the only vacancy being the chair of History, &c., the nomination of the incumbent of which rests in the Pennsylvania Synod.

CHANGE IN THE REVENUE DISTRICTS.—From and after Saturday, the 19th of December, the Assistant Assessors, heretofore employed in the different distilleries in operation in Pennsylvania ceased to act—all distilleries henceforth to be taxed to their full capacity when in operation. The effect of this change will of course be to save a large amount of money in salaries for Assistant Assessors and to reduce the manufacture of whisky, as many distilleries will not operate under this regulation, and therefore the price of distilled liquors will be increased, because of their consequent scarcity.

M. E. CHURCH.—In noticing the Sunday School exercises on Christmas Day, we omitted those of the Methodist Episcopal School, which, we understand, were quite interesting. Besides singing, an excellent address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Mr. CHESTON. A number of gifts were presented—the scholars receiving from their their teachers confections, oranges, &c. A gift of $20 to the Missionary fund by Mr. LAUGHLIN was reported.

On the previous evening, the Rev. Mr. CHESTON was made the recipient of a "donation visit" by members of his Congregation. They bore with them many baskets of luxuries and substantials, the whole forming a very tempting and bountiful supply. The thanks of the pastor and family were warmly expressed.

ACCIDENTS.—While ADAM HOLLINGER was threshing with a Threshing Machine at the barn of LEVI HIMES, in Latimore township, on the 20th ult., by some mismanagement the speed was allowed to get too high, rendering it impossible to feed with sufficient rapidity. After running a few moments empty, and before the speed could be reduced, the cylinder burst with a tremendous explosion, fifty or more pieces being gathered up in various parts of the barn. Strange to say, no person was injured.

We also learn that ZACHARIAH RAFFENSPERGER, of the same neighborhood, was kicked in the face by one of his mules, while in the act of adjusting the crupper, cutting his cheek. Mr. R. was found in the stable insensible, but with the exception of the flesh-wound in the face, escaped serious injury.

A CHEAP SMOKE HOUSE.—A farmer in the western part of New York publishes a plan for a cheap and good smoke house, which as it may contain some practical hints to our readers we publish. He says no farmer should be without a good smoke house, and such a one as will be fire-proof and tolerably secure from thieves. "Fifty hams can be smoked at one time in a smoke-house seven by eight feet square. Mine is six by seven, and is large enough for most farmers. I first dug all the ground out below where the frost will reach, and filled it up to the surface with small stones. On this I laid my brick floor, in lime mortar. The walls are brick, eight inches thick, and seven feet high, with a door on one side two feet wide. The door should be made of wood and lined with sheet iron. For the top I put on joists, two by four, set up edgewise, and eight and a half inches from centre to centre, covered with brick, and and put on a heavy coat of mortar. I built a small chimney on the top in the centre, arching it over and covering it with a single roof in the usual way. An arch should be built on the outside, with a small iron door to shut it up, similar to a stove door, with a hole from the arch through the wall of the smoke-house, and an iron grate over it. The arch is more convenient and better to put the fire in, than to build a fire inside the smoke-house, and the chimney causes a draft through into the smoke-house. Good corncobs or hickory wood are the best materials to make a smoke for hams.—The cost of such a smoke-house will be about $20.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Farmers' Meeting at Agricultural Hall on Monday last was not as well attended, as the importance of these meetings demand.—Views were exchanged on the subject of "Fertilizers," by Messrs. D. P. Forney, H. J. Stahle, Wm. Wible, Daniel D. Gitt, and others. Another meeting will be held in the hall on the 16th inst. It is to be hoped that our Agricultural friends will take hold of these meetings and give them life and interest. They can be made pleasant and profitable.

In the afternoon the annual election for officers of the Agricultural Society was held, resulting in the choice of the following persons:

President—Samuel Herbst.
Vice-Presidents—J. S. Witherow, Wm. McSherry.
Recording Secretary—E. G. Fahnestock.
Corresponding Secretary—H. J. Stahle.
Treasurer—D. Wills.
Managers—Wm. B. Wilson, Jonas Rouanzahn, Wm. Wible, W. Ross White, Frederick Diehl.

The Treasurer's Report shows that the indebtedness of the Society is about $5,500, being the balance due on purchase of grounds and erection of buildings. As there will be necessity for additional buildings for some time to come, it may reasonably be expected that, with two or three successful Fairs, this debt will be extinguished.

DEATH OF MR. FIERY.—Last week we noticed the death of Mr. John Fiery of Washington county, Md., by drowning in the Conococheague, on Christmas day, a short distance from his home. From particulars given in the Hagerstown papers it appears that on that day he had gone to the State Line Depot with a conveyance to meet his son, a Student at Gettysburg, who was on his way to spend his Christmas Holidays, and on his return concluded to ford the Conococheague at a point some two miles above the Broad Fording Bridge. Finding that the Creek was partially covered with ice, he unhitched one of his horses, and rode in for the purpose of breaking up the ice so as to open a passage for the Buggy. But as he was riding through the stream a large cake of floating ice struck and knocked the horse off his feet, and in the fall, Mr. F. was carried under the solid ice, and immediately disappeared, the horse reaching the shore, after having floated down some distance. Mr. F. was a gentleman over sixty years of age—long a prominent, influential and highly esteemed citizen of the upper part of the county—and leaves a very large family connection, as well as many devoted friends, to morn his melancholy death. The body was recovered on Thusday last, after being in the water six days.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Wm. Wills, imprisoned in the County Jail on a charge of assault and battery, and Frederick Klinard, for stealing, undertook to break out on the night of the 26th ult. They were confined in one of the cells not lined with plank or granite, and getting possession of a small iron hook, quarried through the brick-work with it, and emerged into the yard. But not being able to get through or over the yard wall, they went back to bed, where they were found in the morning.—Compiler.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.—The people of Menallen township are agitating the construction of a Railroad from Bendersville, to connect with the South Mountain Railroad. The latter road runs from Carlisle to Pine Grove, and it is proposed to intersect it at or near Turner's Run, six or seven miles from Bendersville. A meeting was held in the public school-house, in Bendersville, on Saturday last, for the purpose of taking some measures to further the project. Isaac Bender was appointed President; E. N. McKimm and Cornelius Bender Vice-Presidents; and A. T. Wright Secretary. The meeting was addressed by W. Scott Morrison, Wm. B. Wilson, Samuel Meals, and others, setting forth the advantages of the proposed Railroad. Another meeting will be held in Bendersville, on Saturday, the 16th inst. at one o'clock, P. M., and Wm. B. Wilson. Jonas Rouanzahn and A. T. Wright were appointed a Committee to invite Joseph S. Gitt, Esq. and others to attend.

ARENDTSVILLE.—During the past season new houses, all brick and two-story, were erected in Arendtsville by the following persons: Thomas Bushman, Alfred Criswell, Reuben Minter, J. P. Spahr, and T. R. Cover, the latter a store building. J. M. Bushey has a dwelling house partly up, and two others will soon be commenced by Dr. M. L. Gates and John Toot. This speaks well for the progressive spirit of Arendtsville.—Compiler.

Among some recent appointments of Notaries Public by Gov. Geary, we notice that of A. Swartz, for Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, and R. Clay Hammersly, for Catasauqua, Lehigh county.

MISSISQUOI.—SPRINGS.—We would be doing injustice to suffering humanity by withholding our pen in praise of the Missisquoi Spring Water. That it has cured many cases of cancer there is hardly room to doubt. Many sufferers who supposed themselves doomed to a speedy death from that terrible malady, declare that they have been restored to health solely by the use of this water. Physicians certify to its wonderful controlling power over that disease. The Missisquoi Spring is no new discovery. It has had a local reputation for over sixty years, as a remedial agent for cancerous affection, scrofula, salt rheum, and all the cutaneous diseases, and many old inhabitants in the northern part of Vermont bear witness to its cures. Consumption which is so prevalent in the New England States and Canada, is unknown in the vicinity of this Spring, and its exemption from that disease is attributable to the healing properties of this water. See advertisement. 1t

SALE ADVERTISEMENTS.—Too little attention is paid by many selling farm stock and real estate, to advertising thoroughly. To save several dollars, hundreds of dollars are lost. Drawing a crowd from all sections may bring you additional bidders for each article: which in the sale of a house, acre of land, horse cow, &c., may amount to from one to ten dollars on each, and on smaller matters smaller amounts might, in the aggregate, net a large sum, paying ten times for all the printing. The large circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" enables the advertiser to reach every section of the county, and many who never get to see ordinary bills. The object of advertising is to attract attention, and he who fails to advertise his goods fully, to save a few dollars, acts on the "penny wise, pound foolish" principle.

HORSE STOLEN.—On Thursday night last, a light bay mare was stolen from the stable of WILLIAM FUNT, on the Harrisburg road, 2 miles from town. Detective ROUZER was put on the trail and on Saturday evening tracked him to with a few miles of Carlisle, when the thief, finding the pursuit too hot, dismounted and turned the mare loose. Officer ROUZER recovered the animal, but the thief managed to escape, getting into the mountain.

MEAT MARKET.—GEORGE A. CODORI has opened a Meat Market on Baltimore street, nearly opposite the Post-office, where he will keep at all times fresh and prime Beef, Veal, Lamb, Pork, Puddings, Sausages, &c. Mr. C. has considerable experience as a Butcher, and his opening this meat market at a central position, will be an accomodation to the public. Give him a call.

HOUSEKEEPERS, and all others wanting anything in the house-keeping line, will do well to call at Col. C. H. BUEHLER'S extensive Ware-room, near the Passenger depot, on Carlisle street, who has on hand a very large assortment of Stoves of the best manufacture, Cooking, Parlor, Office, and Chamber Stoves, for wood or Coal; also Hollow Ware, Tin Ware, Japan Ware, Britannia Ware, Bird Cages, and a general assortment of Kitchen utensils. Also Coal and Lumber of all kinds. tf

RAILROAD COMPANY

OFFER A LIMITED AMOUNT TO THEIR

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

AT PAR.

NINE HUNDRED AND SIXTY MILES

Of the line west from Omaha are now completed, and the work is going on through the Winter. As the distance between the finished portion of the Union and Central Pacific Railroads is now less than 400 miles, and both companies are pushing forward the work with great energy, employing over 30,000 men, there can be no doubt that the whole

GRAND LINE TO THE PACIFIC

WILL BE OPEN FOR BUSINESS IN THE SUMMER OF 1869.

The regular Government Commissioners have pronounced the Union Pacific Railroad to be FIRST-CLASS in every respect, and the Special Commission, appointed by the President, says:

"Taking as a whole, THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD HAS BEEN WELL CONSTRUCTED, AND THE GENERAL ROUTE FOR THE LINE EXCEEDINGLY WELL SELECTED. The energy and perseverance with which the work has been urged forward, and the rapidity with which it has been executed are without parallel in history, and in grandeur and magnitude of undertaking it has never been equalled." The report states that any deficiencies that exist are only those incident to all new roads, and that could not have been avoided without materially retarding the progress of the great work. Such deficiencies are supplied by all railroad companies after the completion of the line, when and wherever experience shows them to be necessary. The report concludes by saying that "the country has reason to congratulate itself that this great work of national importance is so rapidly approaching completion under such favorable auspices." The company now have in use 137 locomotives and nearly 2,000 cars of all descriptions. A large additional equipment is ordered to be ready in the Spring. The grading is nearly completed, and ties distributed for 120 miles in advance of the western end of the track. Fully 120 miles of iron for new track are now delivered west of the Missouri river and 90 miles more are en route. The total expenditure for construction purposes in advance of the completed portion of the road is not less than eight million dollars

Besides a donation from the Government of 12,800 acres of land per mile, the company is entitled to a subsidy in U. S. Bonds on its line as completed and accepted, at the average rate of about $29,000 per mile, according to the difficulties encountered, for which the Government takes a second lien as security. The company have already received $22,158,000 of this subsidy, of which $1,280,000 was paid December 6th, and $640,000 December 14th.

GOVERNMENT AID—SECURITY OF THE BONDS.

By its charter, the company is permitted to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS to the same amount as the Government Bonds, and no more.—These Bonds are a First Mortgage upon the whole road and all its equipments. Such a mortgage upon what, for a long time, will be the only railroad connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States, takes the highest rank as a safe security. The earnings from the way or local business for the year ending June 30, 1868, on an average of 472 miles, were over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS, which, after paying all expenses, were much more than sufficient to cover all interest liability upon that distance, and the earnings of the last five months have been $2,386,870. They would would have been greater, if the road had not been taxed to its utmost capacity to transport its own materials for construction. The income from the great passenger travel, the China freights, and the supplies for the new Rocky Mountain States and Territories must be ample for all interest and other liabilities. No political action can reduce the rate of interest. It must remain for thirty years—six per cent. per annum in gold, now equal to between eight and nine per cent. in currency. The principal is then payable in gold. If a bond with such guarantees were issued by the Government, its market price would not be less than from 20 to 25 per cent. premium. As these bonds are issued under Government authority and supervision, upon what is very largely a Government work, they must ultimately approach Government prices. No other corporate bonds are made so secure.

The price for the present is PAR, and accrued interest at 6 per cent. from July 1, 1868, in currency.

Subscriptions will be received in GETTYSBURG by the Bonds sent free, but parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP was issued October 1st, containing a report of the progress of the work to that date, and a more complete statement in relation to the value of the bonds than can be given in an advertisement, which will be sent free on application at the company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

The coupons of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad company, due January 1st, 1869, will paid on and after that date, IN GOLD COIN, free of Government tax, at the Company's office, No. 20 Nassau street New York.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

ANECDOTE OF STUART, THE PAINTER.

Once Stuart was dining with Governeur Morris, after that gentleman's return from Portugal. There was a large party of handsome women and fashionable men, who occupied high positions in Church or State, and carried their honors bravely. The conversation was chiefly about wines, and especially port wine and vintages; their host maintaining, as well he might, that in this country we never saw any real port wine; and, among other pleasant things, he averred that more port wine, or what passed for port wine, was drank in London than was ever made in Portugal; that even there the genuine article was never to be had for love or money, except under peculiar circumstances,—even the "old port" of the London docks being, at best, but a decoction of logwood and elder-berries or grape-cuttings; and that, in fact, the real Simon Pure was so utterly unlike what passes for port wine here and elsewhere, that our best judges would call it insipid, having neither body nor soul. Nevertheless, he had managed while in Portugal to make an arrangement whereby he could obtain a quarter-pipe now and then for himself or a friend as a special favor, the government itself being afraid to allow the exportation of unadulterated wines, lest they should injure the sale of the rest.

"And now," said he, "to show you all how you have been abused in this matter, I must beg of you to try a glass of what I call port wine,—old port. Here George," (to a waiter behind his chair), "bring us up,—let me see,"—and here he glanced up and down the long table, as if counting noses,—"bring us up three bottles, not more,—I cannot afford more, till my stock is replenished,—of the vintage I have been telling you of,—and give us clean glasses."

The waiter soon appeared with just three bottles, fat and chunky, and covered with dust and cobwebs. The clean glasses were rather undersized, it must be acknowledged; but they were filled, and held up to the light, and looked through, and then there was a deal of talk about the aroma,—the bouquet,—and what they called the body, as if it were condensed sunshine, flashing through a live grapery. Stuart was just raising the glass to his lips, when he caught a whiff of the aroma, and set it down, without tasting it, and without being observed. The talk went on. The ladies began to chirp and chatter like sparrows on the house-tops,—I give Stuart's language, not my own,—and the sparkle of their eyes, and the uncommon freshness of their lips, by the time they had managed the second glass, only served to strengthen his convictions.

At last, after collecting the suffrages, which were not only unanimous but enthusiastic, the host turned to Stuart, and, seeing a full glass before him, asked what he had to say for himself, and whether he had ever met with such old port in his life before. "Never!" said Stuart; and then the host nodded and smiled, and looked about with a triumphant air, as much as to say, What did I tell you? "Never!" but still there was something in the look or tone of his guest which puzzled Mr. Morris, and seemed to call for explanation. "Come, come, Stuart!" said he, "none of your tricks upon travellers. We want your honest opinion, for we all know you are the best judge of wines to be found on this side of the water; and therefore I ask you once more, in all seriousness, if you ever drank such old port in all your life, either at home or abroad, 'pon your honor, now?"

"Never," said Stuart,—"never!" And then there was a dead silence, and the host himself began to look uneasy, not knowing how to understand what he believed to be one of Stuart's jokes; and then Stuart added in his own peculiar way: "You must excuse me, my friend, and you ladies and gentlemen; but I assure you that what you have all been taking for old port wine is not wine at all."

"Not wine at all," exclaimed Morris, almost jumping out of his chair,—"why, what the—plague—is it then?"

"I should call it,—excuse me,"—taking a sniff, as he passed it back and forth before his nose,—"I should call it cherry bounce!"

For a moment the host appeared thunderstruck, well nigh speechless with amazement; but then, as if suddenly recollecting himself, his countenance underwent a change, and calling the waiter, he said, "George, you scoundrel!" in a sort of stage whisper, that could be heard all over the room,—"George, tell me where you found these bottles." The poor fellow trembled and shook; but after a few words of explanation, Morris threw himself back in his chair, and laughed and laughed until it seemed as if he would never stop; and it turned out that this port wine, so "carefully selected by him in Oporto, and sent home years before," as he thought, was indeed nothing but cherry bounce, which had been put up and set aside for family use on special occasions long before he went abroad, till it was entirely forgotten.

LIME.—There are said to be carried off from the soil nine pounds of lime in twenty-five bushels of wheat, nine pounds in fifty bushels of oats, and fifteen pounds in thirty bushels of barley. There are thirty-five pounds of lime in two tuns of rye grass, one hundred and twenty-six pounds in two tons of clover, one hundred and forty pounds in twenty-five tuns of turnips and two hundred and seventy pounds in nine tuns of potatoes. Some soils conta in an abundance of lime for a thousand years, other soils require an occasional application of lime as a fertilizer.

THE buckwheat cake and sausage season is fairly inaugurated. The former constitutes a capital breakfast, providing the dose is not too often repeated. A persistent diet of buckwheat brings about cutaneous eruptions and a style of itching only relieved by exhausting counter irritation. Up in Berks county, where the cereal constitutes the diet of a family from November to March, every child in the family has a tree somewhere near the house against which to scrub his back.

GOOD HAMS.—After hams have been smoked, take them down and thoroughly rub the flesh part with molasses, then immediately apply ground or powdered pepper, by sprinkling on as much as will stick to the molasses, when they must be hung up again to dry. Hams treated in this manner keep perfectly sweet for two or three years. This must be done before the fly deposits the egg, for after that is done nothing will stop their ravages.

THE LATEST REBEL REPORT FROM ARKANSAS.—LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 23.—Refugees from the counties afflicted with the militia continue to flock to this city. They confirm the reports of the outrages. The report that Gen. Grant has sent officers to investigate the outrages is received with rejoicing.

"SHALL we take a 'bus up Broadway?" said a young New Yorker, who was showing his country cousin about town. "Oh dear, no," said the alarmed girl, "I wouldn't do that in the street."

BEAUTIFUL was the reply of a venerable man to the question whether he was still in the land of the living—"No, but I am almost there."

THE GREAT CHOLERA PREVENTATIVE.

I.
X. 1866. L.
THE GREAT

Zingari Bitters.

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. Cheopeus, an eminent Egyptian physician.

He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

This great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was led to think and experiment; and after ten years' study and labor, he presented to his fellow-man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it.—His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. S. Cheopeus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with such great success, that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fever.

The Zingari Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Scrofula, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anaemia, Female Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, &c.

Price One Dollar per quart Bottle.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE

H A I R.

The Great Desideratum of the Age.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for useful ness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but no harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

THE CRAIG MICROSCOPE.

This celebrated patent instrument is simple, cheap, and of permanent availability. It is an optical wonder. It magnifies minute transparent objects 100 diameters or 10,000 times, rendering the animalcules in impure water, the globules in milk, blood, etc., the minute unseen claws, joints, etc. of insects, and, definitely the shape of the pollen of flowers, visible. It shows in diseased pork, the "trichina spiralis," (first discovered in this country with this microscope,) uric acid. urea, etc. definitely, and the eels in vinegar magnified to from one to four inches in length. Mailed for $2.75; or, with six mounted objects, comprising a bee's sting, a wasp's wing, a fly's foot, butterfly's wing dust, mouse's hair, and human hair, $1.00 additional; slides, specially prepared for this microscope, each containing a microscopic picture, 50c. each. New School Song Book.

WE would respectfully call the attention of Principals of Schools, Seminaries, and Teachers of Singing to our New School Song Book,

THE SONG CABINET,

BY C. G. ALLEN.

This Book contains:—

First, A very carefully prepared series of Primary Song Lessons.

Secondly, A large number of new and beautiful School songs

Thirdly, A short Cantata—The School Festival—designed expressly for use at School Receptions, Concerts, and Exhibitions.

The Publishers, in presenting this work to Principals and Teachers, would call special attention to its superior merits as a School Song Book. The author has been very careful in the selection of his music, which is almost entirely new and in adapting to it appropriate words with unobjectionable sentiments, which will commend its adoption in all our Schools and Seminaries.

The Song Cabinet has been adopted by the Board of Education as the text-book for the Public Schools in the city of New York.

Price, sixty cents each. To Schools, &c; six dollars per dozen.

Sample copies sent by mail (post paid,) on receipt of fifty cents

BEEF,

IRON AND PURE BRANDY,

BY DR. HARTMAN,

Regular Graduate of the University of Pennsylvania

It will positively cure Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and all diseases of the Lungs or Bronchial Tubes.

It has been the means of RESTORING THOUSANDS to health who have been given up beyond the reach of medical assistance. It does more to relieve the Consumptive than anything ever known. Unequalled strengthener for delicate Ladies and Children.

EACH BOTTLE CONTAINS THE NUTRITIOUS PORTION OF TWO POUNDS OF CHOICE BEEF.

The Cure of Consumption was first effected by the use of RAW BEEF and BRANDY in Russia, afterwards in France, in which countries I have travelled for years.

I have used it with perfect success in my own family. In presenting this preparation to the public I feel confident that every afflicted one who reads this (even the most skeptical) may become convinced, by a single trial that it is truly a most valuable medicine.

Circulars and medicines sent to any address. Price $1 per bottle—six for $5.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates,

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

J. H. SHIREMAN'S

REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. If you conclude not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines with others, too numerous to mention

This machine has a self-rake, side-delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY TRIED

by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $50 per ton without bags, or $55 in bags. This fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER is to introduce a fertilizer that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient animal matter to mature the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufacture a large supply this winter for the spring crops, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

All orders will be promptly attended to by addressing

THE EAGLE LIVERY,

SALE & EXCHANGE STABLES.

Washington Street, Gettysburg, Pa.

ADJOINING THE EAGLE HOTEL.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public that he has opened a new LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLE in this place, and is prepared to offer superior accommodations in this line. He has provided himself with Buggies, Carriages, Hacks, Light Wagons, &c., of the latest styles sufficient to meet the public demand. His horses are all good, without spot or blemish, and perfectly reliable—none of your "old cripples," but all of the "2.40" order.

Riding parties can always be accommodated and comfortable equipments furnished.

Parties, large or small, can get just what they want on the most accommodating terms.

Visitors to the Battle-field politely attended to, and reliable drivers furnished if desired.

Parties conveyed to and from the Depot upon the arrival and departure of every train.

Horses bought, sold, or exchanged, and always a chance for bargains given. Our motto is "fair play and no gouging."

Particular attention paid to furnishing Vehicles and Hacks for Funerals.

We flatter ourselves that by charging moderately and by furnishing superior accommodations, we cannot fail to please every one who patronizes our establishment.

Coe's Column.

COE'S COUGH BALSAM!

This long tried and popular Remedy is again called to the attention of the public. As often as the year rolls around, the proprietors annually make their bow to the people, and remind them that amongst the many things required for the health, comfort and sustenance of the family through the long and tedious months of winter, Coe's Cough Balsam should not be forgotten. For years it has been a household medicine—and mothers anxious for the safety of their children, and all who suffer from any disease of the throat, chest and lungs, cannot afford to be without it. In addition to the ordinary four ounce so long in the market, we now furnish our mammoth family size bottles, which will, in common with the other size, be found at all Drug Stores.

FOR CROUP,

The Balsam will be found invaluable, and may always be relied upon in the most extreme cases.

WHOOPING COUGH.

The testimony of all who have used it for this terrible disease during the last ten years, is, that it invariably relieves and cures it.

SORE THROAT.

Keep your throat wet with the Balsam—taking little and often—and you will very soon find relief.

HARD COLDS AND COUGHS

Yield at once to a steady use of this great remedy.—It will succeed in giving relief where all other remedies have failed.

SORENESS OF THE THROAT, CHEST AND LUNGS.

Do not delay procuring and immediately taking Coe's Cough Balsam, when troubled with any of the above named difficulties. They are all premonitory symptoms of Consumption, and if not arrested, will sooner or later sweep you away into the valley of shadows from which none can ever return.

IN CONSUMPTION,

Many a care-worn sufferer has found relief and today rejoices that her life has been made easy and prolonged by the use of Coe's Cough Balsam.

IN SHORT.

The people know the article, and it needs no comment from us. It is for sale by every Druggist and Dealer in Medicines in the United States.

THE ATTENTION of the PEOPLE

IS CALLED TO THE

World's Great Remedy,

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure.

This preparation is pronounced by Dyspeptics as the only known remedy that will surely cure that aggravating and fatal malady. For years it swept on its fearful tide, carrying before it to an untimely grave, its millions of sufferers.

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure has come to the Rescue.

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sourness or Acidity of Stomach, Rising of Food, Flatulency, Lassitude, Weariness, finally terminating in Death,

Are as surely cured by this potent remedy, as the patient takes it. Although but five years before the people, what is the verdict of the masses? Hear what Lester Sexton, of Milwaukee, says:

[From LESTER SEXTON, of Milwaukee.]

MILWAUKEE, WIS., Jan. 24, 1868.

MESSRS. C. G. CLARK & CO., New Haven, Conn.

Both myself and wife have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and it has proved PERFECTLY satisfactory as a Remedy. I have NO hesitation in saying that we have received GREAT BENEFIT from its use.

Very Respectfully,
(Signed) LESTER SEXTON.

A GREAT BLESSING.

[From Rev. L. F. WARD, Avon, Lorain Co., O.]

Messrs. Strong & Armstrong, Druggists, Cleveland.

Gentlemen:—It gives me great pleasure to state that my wife has derived great benefit from the use of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. She has been for a number of years greatly troubled with Dyspepsia, accompanied by violent paroxysms of constipation which so prostrated her that she was all the while, for months, unable to do anything. She took, at your instance, Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and has derived GREAT BENEFIT FROM IT, and is now comparatively well. She regards this medicine as a great blessing.

Truly yours,
Jan. 13, 1868. L. F. WARD.

CLERGYMEN.

The Rev. ISAAC AIKEN, of Alleghany, testifies that it has cured him, after all other remedies had failed.

DRUGGISTS.

Any druggist in the country will tell you, if you take the trouble to enquire, that every one that buys a bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure from them, speaks in the most unqualified praise of its great medicinal virtues.

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure

Will be found invaluable in all cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Summer Complaints, Griping and in fact every disordered condition of the stomach.

Sold by Druggists in city or country everywhere at $1 per Bottle, or by application to
